Fatally Wounded in Houston.

Awful Sequel to the Old Jaybird-Woodpecker Feud.

Constable and Desperado Open Pistol Fusillade in the Street.

(By Associated Press.) HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 20.-A horrible tragedy which occurred here late last night, was a sequel to the famous Fort Bend feud known as the Jaybird-Woodpecker quarrel. James R. Mitchell, the principal in the new tragedy was a central figure in that affair.

Milton Sparks and D. L. Sutton, constable of Eagle Lake, were in the city as attached witnesses in the Fort Bend feud murder case, and Mrs. Sparks ac companied her husband. This engen-dered bad blood, and last night Mitchell, who was waiting for his father and brother from Richmond, espled Sutton. He opened fire, which was promptly re turned, Sutton falling after firing a Mitchell kept up his murderous fusillade until he had fired six shots. result was that in addition to Sutton being killed, Milton Sparks was shot to death, and Dan Gleason, an omnibus driver, also lies dead. Mrs. Sparks, wife of the murdered man, was badly wounded, as was also a child she carried. A brother of Sparks was mortally wounded. and Mrs. McDowell, an aged lady, reselved one of the bullets. Her chances of recovery are slim.

Mitchell said to a reporter after hi arrest: "I shot Sutton for interfering in my family affairs, and I hope to killed him. We had a previous difficulty. and he sent me word that he would kill me. Gillman, twenty eight years old, of 1213 Park avenue were remanded in Harlem Police Court this morning, charged with being suspi clous persons. Detective Cain, of the West One Hun dredth street station, saw the two men come out of the hallway at 19 West Ninety-third street at 4 o'clock yester-day afternoon, followed closely by Mrs Oscar Schmidt, who lives in the house. She told the detective that Arthur had written a letter, to which he had signe: Mr. Schmidt's name, asking her to give the bearer her husband's dress suit and overcoat. Mrs. Schmidt. being suspicious, sent a note with Arthur to her husband to find out whether the messenger was reliable. Arthur read the note and answered it himself. He returned later, Mrs. Schmidt having in the mean time telephoned Mr. Schmidt, who has a real centate office at 55 Liberty street, and learned that Arthur was a bogus measurement.
